

3:40 Artemis brought some homemade scones

- They were delicious

3:42 Meeting called to order

3:43 I am apparently supposed to wear the “Put it in the Minutes” shirt to all meetings

3:45 Computers are life

3:46 Convention sign up sheets have dropped

- Indicate if you need a scholarship

3:46 Frances hates everyone who is not in Cross Country

3:48 Frances’ son returns from war

- Henry Zavos walks in

3:48 Everyone loves comic sans

- There is a motion to make the minutes comic sans instead of arial
- The minutes will not be put in comic sans to prevent Katie McCarthy from having a stroke

3:52 Crewnecks

- Aliquid Vero lactans meaning ‘something very pretentious’ will most likely be put on the back

3:54 Christinna does not get Monty Python reference

3:54 Back to crewnecks

- The Latin phrase might have to be lower
 - Some debate about location of phrase
- It is decided Latin will be on the back and the lion design and Madison West Latin will be on the front

3:57 Caffeinated chili hot sauce will wake you up real good

3:59 Scoopy night will happen

- No date yet because we need to be allowed to put up posters
 - This will get people to come support Mad West Latin so that Culver’s will actually let us do Scoopy Night
 - This clearance would allow us to get a date from Todd drive Culver’s so that we can actually make posters

3:59 1st Vice President’s presentation about state convention

- Presentation for every hour of Latin
 - Lots of pictures

4:02 Meeting adjourned

- We can leave