

3:52: Wise Old Woman Lauren Brought cookies and brownies

- They were magical

3:52: We finalized the T-shirt design!

- Black and gold colors
 - Gold for lettering and images, black for rest of t-shirt
- Had to remove the traditional (comma) for the win from the t-shirt because of issues with space

3:52: We also finalized the Browing tank tops

- Decided on just Browing instead of (B)rowing or any of the other alternatives

3:55: Merch Stuff

- We're doing another booster!
 - We need to sell 15 sweatshirts to get them shipped!
 - Hackmaster Frances will be sending the like out, it will be up on the board in the latin room, and Cash Crazy Caleb will be coming to classes to promote it.
- Going to end on the 25th, so get them while they're hot
 - We're also going to do another one after convention, so be prepared to lose a ton of money
