

3:42: Mags brought leftovers from convention

- It was pretty great

3:43: Sweaters are supposed to arrive today

- If you didn't pay for shipping it will be shipped to Caleb's house
 - He will get them to you at some point (Next weeks meeting)

3:44: AMENDMENTS

- Mags handles state registration, so the first two amendments are not necessary
- Article 4, Section 2: Normally all elections are done at the end of the year sometime in June, Wise old woman lauren proposes that we change it to some time in February or March
 - Declaration of candidacy would be due week after the first WJCL meeting after the state convention
 - Passed Unanimously
- Article 5, Section 6: Wise old woman lauren is adding that Treasurers should be responsible for fundraising events and bazaar
 - Passed unan
- Article 6, Section 5: Because of the amendments made to the WJCL convention, Wise old woman lauren's proposed amendment is null
- Article 6, Section 1: Because we passed Article 4, Section 1, declaration of candidacy will be due 1 week after the February WJCL board meeting
 - Passed
- Article 6, Section 2: originally if no candidates were in by may, there would be an emergency election. Wise old woman lauren is changing it to say after the election if there isn't a candidate there will be an emergency
 - Pass
- Article 6, Section 3: Officers shall now be elected the day after the candidates open forum, balots will be counted that night
 - Pass

4:05: We're done